A trove of exceptional items, generously donated to Les Bourgs Hospice, have been locked away in readiness for the Les Bourgs Grand Charity Auction.

Among the 100+ high net worth lots available on the day will be Hermes™ scarves, luxury watches, exquisite ceramics and intriguing collectables ranging from coins and stamps, to vintage jewellery and Lego sets.

Kindly sponsored by Cooper Brouard, the auction will be held on Saturday 23rd September in The Harry Bound Room at Les Cotils, St Peter Port. The auction commences at 10am, with open viewing from 9am. Parking is available on site and entrance to the auction is free.

Full colour auction catalogues will be available for a small donation, and full details and a list of the auction lots will be released on Friday 8th September ahead of the event!

This very special auction is one of the many lifelines for the staff and service users at Les Bourgs Hospice - it's significance to all involved is truly unfathomable. Each successful bid goes directly to the Hospice, and the funds raised, help to support the incredible services supplied by the dedicated team that commit their time and experience to the care of islanders who need it most.

Funds raised for the registered charity are used solely in providing hospice care and maintaining the facilities. Les Bourgs Hospice does not receive any States' funding and needs to raise over £1.6 million per annum to continue to offer care to patients with life limiting disease and support their families.
